WILSON CERTAIN OF STATE'S DELEGATES

Forty Texas Seniors to Baltimore for New Jersey.

Only Prospect of Contest at Houston Convention Today Is Over the Platform.

Houston, Tex., May 27.—The day before the convention tomorrow showed that Woodrow Wilson had a majority in sufficient numbers to instruct all forty of the Texas delegates to Baltimore for him for the presidential nomination. The Harmon leaders said frankly they would abide by the result of recent county conventions in Texas which gave Wilson a majority in tomorrow's state convention, which will elect 32 district delegates and eight delegates at large.

The only prospect of a contest tonight lay in the making of a platform to express today's ideas on national democratic issues here. The prospects were numerous and considerably complicated by factional state politics, especially the campaign principles of various candidates for state or senatorial offices. Some of the Wilson delegates said they favored a strong and "progressive" platform regardless of its effects on state issues. The Wilson men cautioned tonight to decide on their organization tomorrow and the possibilities of a concerted platform sentiment. The Harmon men also cautioned this evening.

McLennan Delegation Leaves.

A good sized delegation from McLennan county left on the train for the Bayou City last night, and will be in readiness for the big gathering which begins its deliberations today. In many respects this convention will be the most important political gathering which has assembled within the confines of the Lone Star state in many years, and according to the rumors which have gained circulation in different wings and branches of Texas democracy, startling events will be the order of the day.

It is thought there will be something doing when the question of platform is broached. It seems probable that the two known factions will get together in the end.

The delegation from McLennan county selected at the recent primary to the Houston convention includes A. R. McCollum, O. L. Strickland, Harry Moore, D. E. Hirschfeld, John M. Connor, John Maxwell, J. W. Blake, R. L. Henry, S. P. Brooks, George Robinson, W. S. Baker, John Gorham, Joe Coffey, Joel Kincannon, James P. Alexander, J. W. Whitely, Ed Walker, W. D. Taylor, J. N. Gallagher, Edgar M. Mann, Hank Holstead, Ed Punched, J. J. Behrens, J. E. Brown and George P. Bird.

The Harmon caucus decided to submit to the state convention tomorrow their own choice of eight delegates to Baltimore from the four congressional districts in which Harmon and Clark delegates have a majority. The Wilson majority in the state convention has the power to substitute Wilson men for these Harmon and Clark delegates.

The Wilson caucus agreed to recommend C. A. Loeble of Cleburne to succeed R. M. Johnston as democratic national committeeman, who retires.

WILL MENGE TEXAS AND CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCES

Baltimore, May 28.—The final sessions of the 21st general conference of the Methodist Protestant church here today, it was decided to merge the Texas and Central Texas conferences. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson was censured for "accepting the presidency" of the National Brethren's congress, and the report of the Sabbath observance committee was adopted, disapproving of Sunday newspapers, Sunday excursions and all forms of amusement or labor on that day.

The next conference will take place in May, 1916, and the place of meeting will be decided upon by the executive committee.

MANY ON VERGE OF STARVING IN LOUISIANA

Distress Ruled Near Jena, La. Suffering.

New Orleans, May 27.—Stories of severe distress among 1400 flood refugees in the vicinity of Jena, La. Suffering.

Refugees Starve.

Mr. Newhauser said he had just completed a trip of 25 miles up Negro River and that 1400 refugees, 950 negroes and 450 whites, were clamoring for food and were in need of medicine.

Rations had been issued those people within ten days, the doctor reported and then only 500 half-rations were issued. Some rations were expected to arrive from Monroe Tuesday.

There was not even a sack of meal in Jena when Dr. Newhauser wrote his report.

The letter was referred to the flood relief committee by the state health authorities, supplies were ordered out immediately.

RETRACTS STATEMENTS CONCERNING ARCHBOLD

Holand asserts he was unprepared and memory was faded at the time.

By The Associated Press.

Washington, May 27.—Called for cross-examination, W. P. Holand, who is responsible for some of the charges against Judge Archbold of the commerce court, retracted several of the statements he had made against Archbold in his general statement. Holand explained he had not refreshed his memory and was unprepared when he made the statement. He admitted that it might contain mistakes.

"And it was on that kind of a statement that these proceedings against Judge Archbold were started," exclaimed counsel for the commerce court jurist.

Holand protested against the insinuation that Judge Archbold had been "trapped," declaring that "whatever trouble Archbold had got in, he got into himself."

CENTRAL TEXAS TOWNS SHARE BENEFITS

W. J. Neale discusses plans of the Texas Power and Lighting Company.

Nine Million Dollar Organization to Also Supply Power to New Interurban.

In discussing the plans of the Texas Power and Lighting Company, which will supply power for the Waco-Dallas interurban line, and which has asked for a state charter, W. J. Neale, one of the incorporators states that electric current will be supplied to many small towns along the power line, in addition to manufacturing establishments and farmers. He said last night:

"The capital stock of the company will be $9,000,000, which may later be increased to $13,000,000. The directors include: J. E. Strickland, O. C. Goodwin, R. A. Ferries, Dallas; F. G. Sykes, Cranford, New Jersey; W. W. Cameron, Waco; A. S. Gruener, New York; J. E. Ferguson, C. M. Campbell Jr., Temple; M. H. Arning, Brooklyn, N. Y.; W. R. Bents, Sherman; F. P. West, Cleburne; N. A. McMillan, St. Louis; S. Z. Mitchell, New York; W. H. Head, Dallas; W. S. Rathell, W. J. Neale, Waco.

"The rapid development of interurbans in the black land belt and of the communities they serve, has prompted the formation of this company. It is our purpose to supply some of these communities with electricity and arrangements have already been made with the Southern Traction company's interurban line, which is now in course of construction from Dallas to Waco and Corsicana, and the new power company's transmission lines will be built along the Southern Traction Company's right of way. The power plant will be large enough to furnish electricity wherever the transmission line runs, with the result that we will be able to supply current to towns which are too small to support an individual electric light plant, and even individual farmers along the route of its line.

"It is unusual to find even a village of two, three or five hundred people that does not have as good electric service as the larger cities, since they are served by the same plant that generates the power and current in the large cities, and in many instances, the ranchers have found it more economical to run their feed-choppers and similar farm machinery by electricity than by hand. The farm houses and barns are lighted by electricity; the washing, ironing, pumping of water and other domestic work is done by the electrical current furnished by the central plant; in short, the farmer and his family, by the installation of this service, have most of the conveniences of the city resident.

"The new company just incorporated will also build transmission lines from Waco south to Temple, although I know of no interurban line contemplated at this time between these points, and will continue to expand as the development and demand for power and electricity warrants. Texas is coming to be recognized as a stable community and we have not found it difficult to secure ample capital to meet the requirements in the organization of this enterprise.

"I regard the formation of this company, and the proposed location of its power plant in or near Waco, as a sign of commercial victory not only for Waco, but for the whole of that part of the state that will be served by its transmission lines.

"Upon reflection it is easy to see that among other advantages it will immediately stimulate and encourage the establishment of a great variety of small manufacturing plants. The overhead charge and expense of maintaining individual motive power is sufficient to drive the machinery of various types of similar manufacturing institutions, will be entirely done away with, as the company has in contemplation, the establishment of a scale of rates that will deliver power sufficient for the operation of such plants, on a satisfactory and more economical basis than individual power plants could possibly be operated. I regard the establishment of the company as a forerunner of great activity along these manufacturing lines.

"Definite plans have not yet formulated for the actual location of the main power plant, but the details of this will be arranged and construction work begin at the earliest practicable moment.

"To avoid any interruption of service on account of break-downs, additional or subsidiary plants will be located at other suitable points along the transmission lines, and in this way consumers will be protected, not only from break-downs of machinery in any of the various generating stations, but even from line troubles, as the general plan contemplates the arrangement of circuits in such a manner that consumers on either side of the place in trouble can be supplied temporarily from stations in opposite directions from the point so embarrassed.

"There is no question in my mind but that the installation and operation of this company will be a real important factor and contribute to the rapid commercial upbuilding of all communities in which it will operate or serve, and which it will impress with the wisdom of the slogan, 'The People Be Pleased.'

WEATHER FORECAST.

Washington, May 27.—Government prediction:

East Texas—Showers in afternoon or night Tuesday, cooler in interior; Wednesday probably fair.

West Texas—Fair Tuesday, except showers and cooler in afternoon or night in north-east and extreme north; Wednesday fair.

Oklahoma—Showers and cooler Tuesday or Tuesday night; Wednesday fair.

There is no question in my mind but that the installation and operation of this company will be a real important factor and contribute to the rapid commercial upbuilding of all communities in which it will operate or serve, and which it will impress with the wisdom of the slogan, 'The People Be Pleased.'

Eighty Persons Die In Theater Fire In Spain

Castellon, Spain, May 27.—Eighty persons were killed tonight in a theatre fire at Villarreal, which was caused by the explosion of a cinematograph.

By The Associated Press.

Hoboken, N. J., May 22.—The campaign into which Theodore Roosevelt plunged three months ago when he announced his willingness to accept the republican nomination virtually came to an end here tonight with a booming welcome to the colonel in Hoboken amid the glare of red fire and the call of bugles as he made his way through streets lined with thousands who cheered him. It was the final rally of the New Jersey campaign.

Col. Roosevelt will now direct his attention to the marshalling of his forces for the battle to be waged in the Chicago convention.

"This is the most remarkable ending to the most remarkable campaign I've ever taken part in," said Col. Roosevelt tonight after he had witnessed the demonstration in Hoboken. "I've been in politics for 35 years and never before have felt such unadulterated satisfaction as in this."

His one best bet.

Coffee plantation ten miles from Santiago is raided and stock is carried off.

Santiago, Cuba, May 27.—General Estenoz and Isonet today have declared their intention to carry on the war, whether the United States intervenes or not, until the Moorish law has been repealed. This law provides that there shall be no recitation of present parties on racial lines and is offensive to the negroes.

Plantations burned.

Estenoz and Isonet have under their 1500 men of whom 500 are well armed. They announce their intention of exacting war contributions from the planters and railroads; otherwise they will burn their property.

A coffee plantation belonging to Juan Botte, near El Cobre, ten miles west of this city, was destroyed today by a rebel band. The buildings were burned and the horses and cattle carried off. A protest has been lodged with the German consul.

It is also reported that a sugar mill at Hatillo, belonging to a German, has been burned by the rebels, but no confirmation has yet come to hand.

WON'T INTERVENE.

Washington, May 27.—President Taft through the state department has assured President Gomez that the United States has no intention of intervening in the affairs of Cuba.

ASKS NATIONAL BANKS IF THEY'LL HELP PROBE

Washington, May 27.—To put the national banks of the country on record, Representative Pujos, representing the banking committee investigating the "money trust" today asked the officers of all such banks a request that they advise him before June 3 whether they intended to comply with the committee's request of a month ago for statistical data.

Mr. Hadley will accept if he believes he can best serve his faction of the party, it was announced, but he would greatly prefer that some other progressive be selected for the place. He so told the Colonel in a letter in answer to his request.

San Diego, Cal., May 27.—Attorney General Webb stated today that he told the police authorities at San Diego that if they were incapable of handling the Industrial Workers of the World it would be necessary for the state to take charge. The only way for the commonwealth to assume control, he said, was through martial law.

GALLOW'S ROPE BREAKS; MAN LASHED TO BOARD

Spectators Horrified At Execution of Lancaster County Italian, Who Pleads Innocence to Last.

Lancaster, Pa., May 27.—His twisted body lashed to an old pine post, Antonio De Remizio, whose home was in Italy, was hanged in the county jail yard here today for murdering a fellow countryman, Tom Serafino, at Neffville, June 8, 1910.

Possibly a more harrowing scene was never witnessed among the 24 hangings that have taken place in Lancaster county than occurred today, when the Italian, with protestations of innocence upon his lips, was executed.

A specially woven rope, which had been thoroughly tested, was placed around the man's neck, and as Sheriff Eby sprang the trap the hundred spectators were horrified to see the rope break and the half-conscious body drop to the ground. The executioners hastily picked the body up, and, fearing that there was still life and that he might make an effort to break away, bound him to a board. He lay there fully seven minutes, while another rope, used in a former hanging, was adjusted to the gallows.

The plank, with the half-dead body securely bound to it, was lifted to the scaffold and again the trap was sprung. This time the rope held, and in a few moments the murderer was pronounced dead.

Physicians were unable to tell whether Remizio was partly conscious when he lay stretched on the board, but his body was seen to twitch several times by the witnesses. Twenty minutes elapsed from the time the trap was first sprung until the body was cut down.

Hemizio to the last said that he would die an innocent man. His family never learned of his arrest and conviction, but they will be notified by the attending priest.

TAFT SAYS HE WON'T HAVE ANY THIRD TERM

Would not consider it, says President, whose chance of second is slim.

By The Associated Press.

Atlantic City, N. J., May 27.—With a speech to a crowd that filled Young's place back to the board walk, with an overflow on the walk, President Taft tonight practically closed his campaign for New Jersey's 23 delegates to the republican national convention.

For four hours tomorrow he will campaign on his way from the coast to the Delaware river. He will not make his last speech until one hour before the polls open but his political advisers were of the opinion that in his speech and down the coast today the president had convinced the best to convince the New Jersey supporters that he was worthy of their support tomorrow. Expressions from these advisers tonight were optimistic and Mr. Taft himself apparently felt that his tour of the state had not been in vain.

Gets Roaring Welcome.

Atlantic City was the last stop for Taft made on a day that began with him at 8 o'clock and was crowded with speeches. Most of the president's addresses were demonstrations and appearances interested in his remarks. In Atlantic City he received a roaring welcome from the throngs of persons on the streets and on the board walk as he went to his hotel and later as he was taken to the pier where he spoke.

The president did not change the tone of his speeches from those made in other New Jersey towns except in few places. He declared today, however, that he would not consider a third term. He declared several times that the negro has much to fear if the proposal to recall judicial decisions should become law.

Will Choose 28 Delegates.

This state will choose 28 delegates to each national convention, four at large and two each from the congressional districts. Each district selects its own delegates, but the delegates at large are elected by the vote of the whole state. The primary laws also permit voters to express a personal choice for a presidential candidate. But this preference vote has no direct bearing on the division of delegates.

Delegates to be voted for are pledged to Taft, Roosevelt or La Follette, on the republican ballots; and on the democratic ballots for Woodrow Wilson or marked "uninstructed." The democratic fight has been only between Gov. Wilson and his opponents inside the state. The republican candidates found no state issues to aid them and have made their campaigns largely on personal grounds.

Wilson Confident.

Gov. Wilson's friends tonight declared he would win the full state delegation with the possible exception of the members from Newark, stronghold of former United States Senator Smith, whose reelection the governor opposed.

Col. Roosevelt closed his campaign tonight, but the president will speak tomorrow up to the hours of the opening of the polls. The president and Col. Roosevelt have made more than fifty speeches each since they entered the state last Thursday. By train and automobile they have covered New Jersey until hardly one of its two and a half million inhabitants has lacked a chance to see the candidates. Senator La Follette has been in the state for the last five days, and has made nearly a dozen speeches. Gov. Wilson has spoken three times and has issued one address to the voters.

Important to Democrats.

Although the democratic campaign has been mild in comparison with the rush of the republican workers, the result of the primary is considered of unusual importance since it is thought Wilson will get a severe blow at Baltimore if delegates from his own state were not instructed to vote for him.

METHODIST BISHOP TO RETIRE AT 75

Minneapolis, May 27.—The Methodist Episcopal conference today adopted the plan of automatic retirement of bishops at the general conference nearest his 75th birthday. The plan will go into effect at the beginning of the next general conference and will replace the method of superannuating bishops by vote of the conference.

The conference today rejected an amendment introduced by Robert Forbes of Philadelphia which provided that any charges made against bishops should be presented to the senior bishop, who should present them to the board of bishops, and that the case should be heard behind closed doors.

METAL TARIFF BILL NEXT.

Washington, May 27.—Only a speech by Senator Heyburn of Idaho and conclusion of a speech of Senator Cummins of Iowa tonight stand in the way of the iron and steel tariff bill in the senate. Action is expected tomorrow. To expedite the business, the senate committee convenes at 11 o'clock tomorrow, one hour earlier than usual.

REPORTS EXCISE BILL.

Washington, May 27.—The minority report of the senate finance committee of the house excise tax bill, declaring that the wealth of the United States was escaping a fair share of the burdens of supporting the government, was submitted to the senate today by Senator Simmons of North Carolina. The republican majority of the committee recently adversely reported the measure.

FORMER MADERO LEADER RELEASED FROM PRISON

Mexico City, May 27.—It became known today that Alfredo Dominguez, who a year ago was the commander of the Madero forces in the federal district and who put down the riots that attended the resignation of General Diaz, was released on bail three days ago from prison, where he had been held six weeks on the charge of inciting rebellion. He sailed for Europe yesterday.

FIERCE BATTLE FOR JERSEY ENDS

Wilson's Fate Bound up in Result Today; Foes Seek an Uninstructed Delegation.

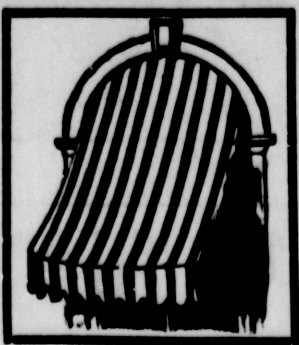

Newark, N. J., May 27.—The New Jersey primary election tomorrow will bring practically to a close the spectacular campaigns for the presidential nomination that have resulted this year from the adoption by several states of presidential preferential laws. It is believed the voting in New Jersey tomorrow will mark the close of the personal appeal for the primary votes that President Taft and Theodore Roosevelt have voiced in many parts of the country.

ROOSEVELT MEN IN SADDLE AT FORT WORTH

INDICATIONS ARE THEY WILL CONTROL CONVENTION TODAY;
TAFT BOLT IS EXPECTED.

Hearing of Claims of 17 "Regular"
Contesting Delegations Add to Colonel's Forces.

By The Associated Press.
Fort Worth, May 27.—With indications tonight pointing to the control of the republican state convention here tomorrow by the Lyon-Roosevelt forces, and prospects of a bolt by members of the McGregory-Taft faction, the preliminaries of the convention were mapped out today by the opposing sides.

While many of the Taft delegates concede the power to the Roosevelt men, the followers of McGregory give promise of a fight. This was indicated effectively today in a demand for recognition of the contesting delegations which Chairman Cecil A. Lyon of the state executive committee had declared "irregular contests," because of failure to file in a given time. Late in the day several of these contests were heard.

Claims heard.
The claims of seventeen contesting delegations, classed as "regular," were heard this afternoon, giving, the whole, an addition to the followers of Lyon and Roosevelt. Chairman Lyon, who is the avowed leader of the Roosevelt faction, claimed 127 votes in the convention tomorrow before the contests were settled this afternoon.

Those include not only instructed votes but those which Lyons says he has been assured are for Roosevelt. H. P. McGregory, Taft manager of the campaign in Texas, claims 81 instructed delegates for the president. Eight delegates at large to the national convention at Chicago will be selected tomorrow. Aside from this, sixteen district conventions recently chose two delegates to the national convention. There are nine contests from these district conventions, where two sets of delegates were selected.

GOETHALS TO WASHINGTON.

By The Associated Press.
Panama, May 27.—Col. Geo. W. Goethals will leave tomorrow for Washington whence he intends to return in the last week in June, shortly before the presidential election in Panama. He does not expect serious disturbances before, nor after the election.

H. Porcival Dodge, the United States minister to Panama, says the reports of the American commission show that wherever they arrived they have been able to settle, in a friendly way, all the differences between the majority and minority members of the electoral jury. Some districts have completed their registration lists in a manner satisfactory to all parties.

PROXIES BOUGHT.

By The Associated Press.
New York, May 27.—Proxies of shareholders of the Waters-Pierce Oil Company were sought by agents, acting directly for John D. Rockefeller to defeat the Pierce faction of the company last February and place Standard Oil interests in control, in accordance to testimony given here today by a commissioner by Charles White, secretary of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

Mr. White testified that he was instructed by James A. Moffatt, vice-president of the Standard Oil Company, to gather proxies in the name of Walter F. Taylor and Michael Vanburne.

JUROR FOUND INSANE;
REHEARING IS DENIED

By The Associated Press.
Washington, May 27.—The supreme court of the United States today declined to grant a new trial to Chester S. Jordan, the actor, who was convicted of having murdered his wife near Boston. Her dissected body was stuffed into a trunk. Jordan declared that he was denied a constitutional trial because one of the jurors who sat on his case was found to have been insane 24 hours after the verdict was handed in.

THIRTY BRIDES-TO-BE ARRIVE.

By The Associated Press.
New York, May 27.—Thirty brides-to-be from Scotland and Ireland reached New York today on the steamer Caledonia from Glasgow. Most of the young women are bound for points west of the Mississippi and in southern Canada.

Boy Killed When Horses Run Away In Crowded City Streets

By The Associated Press.
Oklahoma City, May 27.—A runaway team tearing down the street while a boy eight years old held to the lines and tried in vain to stop the frightened horses was a spectacle that chilled the blood of spectators today. The wagon was overturned at a corner and the child was instantly killed. He was Harry McKee, son of a wealthy citizen, and was in the wagon of Roy Casey, his uncle.

CITY TAX COLLECTOR AFTER DELINQUENTS

DOG CATCHER TO BEGIN WORK
JUNE 1—BETTER GET A LICENSE, STRIBLING SAYS.

It is evident that City Tax Collector R. L. Stribling made a distinct hit with the general public when he inaugurated an innovation a few days ago of notifying by phone all those whose names appear upon the delinquent tax rolls of the city. In this way the tax assessor hopes to materially benefit a great many citizens who otherwise are prone to forget, thereby causing them much needless and unnecessary trouble and expense. On and after June 1 a penalty will be added to all delinquent taxes.

The city authorities, it is understood, will start the famous dog wagon beginning on the first of the month. Dogs and doggies of all kinds and stations in life must suffer the consequences of forgetfulness or disregard of their worthy masters, and unless the little brass tag is procured and the regulation tax is paid in accordance with the laws the innocent lives of the doggies must pay the terrible penalty of death. The city tax on a male dog is $1 per year, while on a female dog the tax is $2.50. According to Tax Collector Stribling, the owners of dog taxes have been conspicuous by their absence, but business in this line is expected to pick up within the next few days.

COTTON MANUFACTURER DIES.

By The Associated Press.
Fall River, Mass., May 27.—A message from New York this afternoon announced the death of Matthew C. D. Borden, the wealthy dry goods commission merchant and cotton manufacturer. All of Mr. Borden's mills in this city were ordered closed on receipt of the news.

Mr. Borden's seven print mills, operated under the name of the Fall River Ironworks company, constitute the largest print cloth manufacturing plants in the United States. He also was the owner of the American Print company of this city. For many years he was identified with the Bliss Fabayan company of New York and Boston.

HELD ON FORGERY CHARGE.

By The Associated Press.
Charged with forging a check on the First National Bank during the rush hours Saturday, Tom Harper is still confined in the county jail. A complaint was filed against him Monday. As stated in the Morning News Monday morning, one hundred fifty-five dollars, said to be a part of the money secured from the bank, was recovered. Harper admitted drawing the check. The name of J. F. Carson was signed to the check. Harper has a wife and three children at his home near Twelfth and Burleson streets. He was arrested by Sheriff George Tilley and Deputy Alva Hatch.

SUE TO PARTITION ESTATE.

A suit to partition the estate of Dr. D. R. Wallace was filed in the Nineteenth district court Monday morning. The plaintiffs are Mrs. Lillian Riley, et al, and the suit is brought against George W. Tyler, of Belton and Mrs. Sue L. Wallace, granddaughter and wife of Dr. Wallace, respectively, who were named as executors of the estate by the county court. According to an inventory filed in the county court following the death of Dr. Wallace the value of the estate was placed at $15,900, with $7400 on hand after the indebtedness had been disposed of.

BUILDING AT A. & M. IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Firemen had no chance at the flames, which had got a great headway before being discovered.

CATTLEMAN DEAD.

MUST PAY MORE THAN TWO MILLIONS

SUPREME COURT DECIDES ONE OF THE LARGEST JUDGMENTS EVER ENTERED.

Sued by Copper Company, Which
Had Lost Case in Massachusetts;
—a Quandary.

By The Associated Press.
Washington, May 27.—One of the largest judgments against an individual ever decreed by the supreme court of the United States was announced today against Albert S. Bigelow of Boston. He will be called upon to pay a judgment of $2,100,000 together with the interest, which probably will bring the total up to $2,500,000.

The victor in the suit is the Old Dominion Copper Mining and Smelting company. Bigelow and Leonard Lewiston of New York promoted the company and while owning its stock sold it to certain properties at an enormous profit. Then they sold their stock to the "innocent public." With the company under the control of the "innocent" stockholders, it sued Lewiston in New York for the profits. The company lost.

Bigelow to Pay.

Then Bigelow was sued by the company in Massachusetts and the courts of that state laid down the far-reaching principle that the company, no longer controlled by its promoters, could rescind its contract to purchase the property from them and make Bigelow account. Consequently Bigelow was directed to pay the company $2,100,000.

Corporation lawyers are in a quandary tonight as to the law. The supreme court in 1908 affirmed the New York decision, which held that the company could not recover this, while today it likewise affirmed the Massachusetts decision which allowed it to recover.

The decision today dealt exclusively with the question whether the Massachusetts decision was controlled by the New York decision under "the full faith and credit" clause of the constitution. The Massachusetts courts will be called upon to enforce the judgment.

BEATING WAY ON TRAIN BRUSHED OFF TO DEATH

By The Associated Press.
Chicago, May 27.—Three men, all of whom are believed to have been "beating" their way on freight trains, were killed here during the night. Two of the men were brushed from the top of a box car by the tender of a viaduct. The body of the third was found early today on the tracks near Niles Center. Only one of the men carried anything that might lead to identification. This was a card of Typographical Union Number 23. It bore the name "Daniel W. Westenberg."

TRAVELING MAN CHARGED WITH CRIMINAL ASSAULT

By The Associated Press.
Houston, Tex., May 27.—A complaint, charging Arthur Hauber, a traveling man out of Denver, with criminal assault, was lodged this morning and he continues in jail. The complainant is Mrs. Adella Stevens, the mother of four little children, who recently came here from Center, Texas, and is employed as maid at the Milby hotel. The assault, she alleged, was committed in a room occupied by Hauber. Screams of the woman as she dashed from the room brought relief and the arrest of Hauber.

INSURANCE COMPANY IS DAMAGE SUIT DEFENDANT

TEXAS STATE AGENT BASIS.
HARVEY ROSE ASKS JUDGMENT FOR $100,000.

One of the largest and most important suits ever heard here, in point of the amount of money involved, began in the Nineteenth district court, Monday morning, when the case of Harvey Rose against the Oklahoma Fire Insurance Company, was called for hearing. There is involved in the litigation $100,000. An array of legal talent from the new state, as well as from this city, is battling for the rights of their respective clients.

In the petition it is alleged that the fire insurance company failed to respect a contract with the plaintiff, in which a state agency for the fire insurance company was concerned. It is probable that the proceedings will continue throughout the week, and possibly longer. The case originally went to trial a month ago, but was postponed on account of the illness of a witness.

LORIMER NON COMMITTAL.

By The Associated Press.
Chicago, May 27.—A reporter: "Senator, did the vice-president have a talk with you Saturday about the advisability of your resigning your seat in the senate?"

Senator Lorimer: "I am feeling a trifle better today."

Reporter: "Have you decided whether you will resign your seat or continue the fight?"

Senator Lorimer: "It is a remarkably pleasant day and I feel better."

These were two questions and the answers that passed between the junior senator from Illinois and a reporter regarding the report that Vice-President Sherman had called on Lorimer last Saturday and advised him that a poll of the senate was not entirely favorable to Lorimer's retention of his seat.

Friends of the senator reiterated today the belief that he will not resign under any circumstances.

THE EUTERPEAN CLUB CLOSING SHOWERED WITH COMPLIMENT

The annual spring recital of the Euterpean Club has come to be considered an accepted pleasure amid the club closing features. This season there was an unusual success, a very large attendance and enthusiasm unbounded. One of the musicians of the city best capable to criticize pronounced the occasion more than creditable for an amateur club. The Euterpeans have had a very pleasant year. Their interest has been above the average, and this new feature to their credit will doubtless bring them together in the fall with even increased interest. Invitations were generally issued for this spring compliment, and these were accepted to the limit of the library auditorium. The platform was made a spring bower of daisy, nasturtium and graceful foliage. Miss Mabel Quay as retiring president of the club was master of ceremony. There were neat programs, attentive ushers, and a very responsive audience. Every number was heartily applauded, that of Mrs. Temple Morrow amounting to an ovation. The special features found voice numbers from Mrs. Gertrude Mills Hunt and Miss Beulah Duncan, both of whom were enthusiastically received. The others who had been selected by the club to appear were Mrs. Virginia Ryan, Miss Bettie May Hill, Miss Mary Belle Wood, Mrs. J. W. Hall, Mrs. T. N. McMullen, Miss Nettie Autrey, Mesdames T. M. Bishop and J. H. Barnard.

TAYLOR SOCIETY WELCOMES MRS. FLORA CAMERON

A recent issue of the Taylor paper contains prominent society mention of the presentation of Mrs. Flora Cameron to the friends of her sister, Mrs. D. D. Fairchild, whom she was visiting. It was indeed the compliment to Mrs. Fairchild that recent member of Taylor society as she is, she should so soon have numbered all the representative women of the place her friends. There is more. So favorably has Mrs. Fairchild been received that her rooms were filled with hot house flowers ordered from out of town as a courtesy from those whom she had invited to meet Mrs. Cameron. The two hours were passed in a beautiful garden party with orchestral accompaniment to the animated voices. Texas prairie flowers were used freely, also the choicest clippings from the Taylor home gardens. About twenty, both young and married, were invited to remain during the hours. It is evident that Mrs. Cameron, in her gracious manner, made a most favorable impression, and she has been free to pass compliment upon the up to date way Taylor society has of doing the things social. The stay of Mrs. Cameron was too short for individual introduction, hence this courtesy from Mrs. Fairchild.

MRS. HOLLOWAY SETS EXAMPLE; WHO'LL FOLLOW

In rendering an account of her stewardship to her club, the Emerson, Mrs. J. B. Holloway, the retiring president, stated that she had not missed a club meeting, a City Federation meeting, or an executive board meeting during her term of service. Is there another club president in the city who can say the same? This means that Mrs. Holloway gave her service even to the point of personal sacrifice; it means, too, that her conduct of the Emerson club was more thorough and more intelligent because of her familiarity with what was expected of the club in its outside obligations. This should be an example to any body of women, for the church and the charity societies need this same intelligence and familiarity with the necessities.

MRS. THOMPSON'S MESSAGE TO FRIENDS AT HOME

A private letter from Mrs. E. E. Thompson states that she is hungry, oh so hungry for glimpses of the friends at home. Now that the time is nearing for summer travel she feels that many will be going to New York City, and in the hopes that these will look her up, she sends her address as 3941 West 67th and that she may be reached by telephone by calling for the Colonial Studios, 3227 Columbus, and this connection made, the Charles Curran apartment Mrs. Thompson will remain in the city for treatment, but Mr. and Mrs. Curran are going to their summer cottage at Cragmore.

NORA TOMMIE GRISOM A WACO PRODIGY

The little seven-year-old child from the East Side, Nora Tommie Grissom, is becoming known to the city as a real musical prodigy. The little miss is but seven years old and has no musical knowledge whatever, and yet can play by ear such ambitious numbers as Chopin compositions. She is modest, scarce seems to realize what it all means. She has been taken under the tutelage of Professor Schimmelpenninck who presented her at a recital at Carroll Chapel a few afternoons ago. There were hundreds present, and all marvelled at the wonderful gift of this child. It is predicted that she will become one of the wonders of the musical world.

MISS WOOD HAS RECITAL WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

There have been sent to friends of the popular pupil, Mrs. Virginia Ryan, invites you to a Piano Recital Given by Her Pupil Miss Mary Belle Wood Wednesday Afternoon, May 29th, 5 O'clock Library Hall.

Miss Wood will render the entire program except a second piano played by Mrs. Ryan in two duos. The selections represent such composers as Wagner-Liszt, Weber Moszkowski, and others of such fame. This assures that Miss Wood is a young pianist well worth the hearing.

THE SUL ROSS PIANO FUND HAS SUCCESSFUL BENEFIT

Among the closing features of the Sul Ross School was an entertainment from the children, drilled by the teachers as a means of raising the amount due for the school piano. This was very successful. Many mothers attended and many more children. The result financially is the amount due upon the piano for this year is more than raised. The children gave a very touching little concert.

Society Notes.

In her hurry trip to Alabama where her aunt lay dangerously ill, Mrs. K. A. McKinney had the misfortune to be delayed in her train connection in New Orleans. Mrs. T. D. Hays receiving her Bible class in social session this afternoon.

The two Texas stars which made such attractive floral pieces at the reception which was tendered the women visitors with the ad men were presented by Mrs. D. L. Latenby to the Toronto and the Baltimore delegations.

Did everybody read the Fly Catcher in The Morning News Sunday? What is more, did every woman take it into the kitchen to read the maid of all work? We hope so.

Miss Antoinette Ockander will return from California where she has been for some time to enter school in Waco. She comes with the pride of taking her diploma from her own home town.

It is now expected that quite a contingent of out of town guests will be here for the Richey-Seely wedding which takes place on the 31st of June.

At last the lovers of fiction will have something new by way of background for a love story. This is The Goodly Fellowship, written by Rachel Capen Schaufel. This author comes from a long line of fervent missionaries, so her work favors that of life among the natives of Persia. The love story rivals the local atmosphere in interest.

Ninety-five per cent of our consumption comes from careless spending, coughing or sneezing, says a state health officer. And yet, the women right here in Waco do not raise their voice in continuous protest. Several times the women have gone to the authorities urging that the spitting ordinance be enforced, but, after a promise, they did nothing further. Is there not some organization who will keep at this until there is no sign of expectoration on our streets?

How is this for the growth of the suffrage sentiment among the southern women? Two of the most modest, dignified young girls ever known in Waco society, a few days ago walked hand in hand on the streets of New York City in a parade of suffragists. There is no point in the world today where this enfranchisement of women is not regarded.

Today marks the first real proof that the good old summer time is here. There has been all the vintage announcements of the young Married Ladies' Bridge, of the Press Club, of the Emerson Club, of the Women's Club and of the Review, all to meet on Tuesday. Now there is none to report but the card club.

How many noticed the recent action of the Cincinnati women in regard to powder and face lotion? Nothing that so many, especially young girls, were raising complexion by such applications, the women have organized a club which has for its pledge to use none of the face lotions, and for its purpose to use all possible influence with others to do the same. This is not a crusade against all face applications, but against the liquids which are so harmful, especially to the skin of the young. The woman who thinks she deceives when such a wash is on her face is sadly mistaken. Unless it be in a ball room under artificial light, the signs are unmistakable. In the full natural sunlight it is nothing less than a shame. It is hoped that the action of the Cincinnati women will follow into other cities.

Mrs. J. B. Cornish and her guest, Mrs. Raynor of Pennsylvania, are at home from the Causeway open house. They report the exercises interesting and the work which man has done nothing short of the heroic age.

Miss Frances Bonner, who was one of the out of town girls for

After a winter absence, the friends of Miss Helen Edmond yesterday welcomed her return from Brownwood for the summer.

While the ad men were here telling us all how nice it was, we were quite indifferent by saying, "Not all, this is nothing for Waco." But now they are flying to the north of the country, we at home are bantering bouquets back and forth, all telling each other how Waco covered herself with glory everlasting. The latest pony comes from Mr. Crawford to say that it never could have been what it was without the Waco women. Mr. Crawford is proud of the women of this city. He says they not only respond cheerfully but they know what to do and how to do it.

SOMETHING NEW FOR WACO IN THE FUNERAL LINE

When our loved ones pass away our hearts are torn and grief. We absorb the thought that something has gone out of our life forever. It is not the time to think of affairs in every-day life. Yet, we all have the desire that this same loved one shall be laid away with every mark of respect. Then do we not owe it to ourselves that we provide for the time when this grief enters our home? The undertaker is not a new profession, it is a constantly changing profession. Does it look as though we respected our dead to send them to their last sleep in a casket of old shape and finish? Does it show respect to our dead to have our funeral director use old methods when there are newer? This must be said in the light that all will give some attention now to what is the newest and most accepted in funeral arrangements. There is no emporium in Texas better equipped to give an up to date funeral than is the F. M. Compton force. The fire last winter made it necessary for Mr. Compton to refurbish his parlors entirely. He has had much experience with the funeral establishments in the wholesale world, and has also studied the demand of the Texas people. He is now just opening as the fruit of his study and selection—the most attractive parlors in Texas. First of all, there are now used exclusively by Mr. Compton four beautiful hearse. This includes the first flower carriage ever seen in this city. This has appeared for the funerals of the past week and has been much admired. The carriage itself, a soft gray, is restful, particularly so, when it passes laden with its beautiful blossoms between the somber casket hearse and the heart-broken family. Mr. Compton is the only funeral director who drives his own hearse, a span of double greys, always immaculately groomed. The Compton parlors are within the past few days stocked with caskets of the latest shape and finish, also of varied tones suitable for all ages. The line of robes is beyond anything ever shown in this city. They are made by advanced robe artists. Now, before we are bowed in the depths of our grief, we should visit the Compton parlors, for no other place than to see what is the latest in the funeral director's line. When the bitter moment comes we will then be prepared to know what is the most correct mode of burial. The funeral director should keep abreast of funeral forms in more advanced centers. This Mr. Compton does. He is a graduate examiner, and a man who makes a constant study of his profession. The new Compton parlors, re-stocked entirely, is well worth a visit of inspection.

VOICE OF HELL EVANGELIST'S SUBJECT

LARGE CROWD ATTENDS MONDAY NIGHT SERVICES AT MONSTER TABERNACLE.

Ham Says Literal Hell Ten Thousand Times Worse Than Figurative Language.

If the evidence of "Blue Monday" was seen in the smaller crowd after the tremendous outpouring on Sunday night at the big tabernacle, the attendance was the only thing that registered any reaction. If anybody came tired and weary, Sanger Ham did not let them stay that way long after the inspiring song service began. For Ham is a dynamo of sunshine and a generator of optimism.

Evangelist Ham has made his personal personality and thorough earnestness so evident in all the sermons until the audience feels at home with him and is giving a sympathetic hearing.

Good humor always prevails in the meeting.

"Turned Away from the Beautiful Gate" was the effective solo of Mr. Ham last night. The prayer by the evangelist was a touching appeal for the unfortunate victims led down in sin and wretchedness in Waco.

"A Voice From Hell" was the theme of sermon following the Sunday sermon on Judgment. He said in part:

"God never made hell for man. It was prepared for the devil and his angels. Every man who goes there will do so by his own choice, because he fails to prepare for heaven."

"Just as a dead man must be buried so a wicked soul must go to hell."

"Is there real fire in hell? Well, nobody can tell what fire really is and it matters not. If this is figurative language I want to tell you that the reality is ten thousand times worse than the illustration."

"Some of you say you don't believe God will cast a man in hell, it's too cruel. Neither do I believe a man would bury his mother unless she were dead. But God will not put a sinner in hell unless he is dead. So just as a cemetery is necessary to the health of a community, so hell is essential to the life of the other world. Gov. Mann would not have permitted Henry Clay Beattie to be electrocuted if he could have maintained justice without it."

"Some of you professed Christians are owning bells in this town right now, and making money out of them."

"You people who say you don't think there's any hell, simply don't know what sin is doing in your town."

Services are held every morning at 10 o'clock and every evening at 8 o'clock.

TO INFECT THEM.

By The Associated Press.
Oklahoma City, May 27.—The first chinch bugs of the year are reported in the vicinity of Ada, where, it is stated, that they are very numerous and unless something is done at once to prevent it they will spread over a wide territory.

The state board of agriculture will send infected bugs to that section to be placed among the healthy ones, to test the theory that they will become infected and soon cease their ravages on the growing crops.

ROBBED WHILE AT MASS.

Special to The Morning News.

New York, May 27.—While mass was being celebrated in the Church of the Blessed Sacrament, Broadway and Seventy-first streets, this morning, Miss Mary Miller, a communicant, saw a hand reach into her pew and take her handbag, containing money and valuable papers.

She screamed loudly, the service was interrupted, and several worshippers pursued a youth who was walking out of the church.

In the west side court a young man, who said he was James Hughes, of 204 West Fourteenth street, was held in $1000 bond on a charge of attempting to steal the handbag.

EXPORTS CONTINUE TO GROW STATISTICS SHOW

FOREIGN TRADE FOR FISCAL YEAR ENDING IN JUNE WILL SHOW BIG ADVANCE.

The foreign trade of the United States in the fiscal year which ends with next month will show larger totals than in any earlier year. The 10 months' figures covering the commerce down to the close of April, just compiled by the Bureau of Statistics, department of Commerce and Labor, make it quite apparent that in both imports and exports the totals for the fiscal year 1912 will be the largest on record. Imports seem likely to approximate 1600 million dollars, exceeding by between 40 and 50 million dollars the highest record import year, 1910, when the total was 1557 million dollars. Exports seem likely to approximate 2200 million dollars, or about 150 million dollars more than those of the previous high record of 2049 million made in the fiscal year 1911.

This growth in foreign commerce, while common to both imports and exports, is especially marked in the export trade. Imports have increased approximately 850 million dollars since 1896, while exports in the same time have increased about 1,300 million, the excess of exports over imports in the same period increasing from 103 million dollars in 1896 to about 600 million dollars in the current fiscal year. This excess of exports of 600 million indicated for the fiscal year now closing will be larger than that of any earlier years except 1898, 1901 and 1908, in each of which years it was considerably above the 600 million dollar line.

The principal articles comprising the 1600 million dollars of imports in the fiscal year, grouped according to the approximate magnitude of their prospective totals are as follows: Coffee, 120 million dollars; sugar, 110 million; rubber, 100 million; hides and skins, 96 million; chemicals, etc., 90 million; cotton manufactures, fiber, manufactures and raw silk, 50 to 65 million; tin, fruits and nuts and wood, including manufactures, each about 45 million; art work, copper manufactures, raw fiber, diamonds and other precious stones, and wool, between 35 and 40 million dollars each; and tea, spirits, wines and liquors, raw cotton, leather, paper, meat and dairy products, furs and fur skins, fish, cocoa, ranging downward from 20 million to 10 million dollars each. The most conspicuous increases, comparing with 1911, occur in art works, over 50 per cent; hides and skins, 40 per cent; sugar, 15 per cent; tin, 20 per cent, and coffee, about 30 per cent.

The leading exports and their indicated totals for the fiscal year rank about as follows: Raw cotton, 585 million dollars; iron and steel manufactures, 260 million; meat and dairy products, 160 million; breadstuffs, 135 million; copper, 110 million; mineral oils, 100 million; lumber, etc., 90 million; cotton manufactures, and coal, each about 50 million; agricultural implements, cars and carriages, leather, and tobacco, each about 40 million; and vegetable oils and fruits and nuts, between 20 and 35 million dollars each. The largest increases occur in iron and steel, about 20 per cent, meat and dairy products, 20 per cent, and copper and mineral oils, each 10 per cent, the comparisons, both in imports and exports relating to values only.

The growth in both imports and exports occurs in our trade with every grand division of the world except Africa and in the trade with nearly all the leading commercial countries. For the fiscal year the exports to Europe seem likely to be about 1350 million dollars, against 1308 million in 1911, the former high record year in exports. Exports to North America will approximate 500 million dollars, against the former high record of 457 million in 1911; and those to South America will probably aggregate 125 million dollars, against 100 million in 1911, the former high record in that trade. To Asia the year's exports will amount to about 115 million dollars, a total larger than any other year except 1905, when Japan was drawing largely upon the United States for food and other supplies for use in the war with Russia, and China was importing large quantities of American cottons to supply the shortage resulting from the closing of the ports and markets of Manchuria, the great Asiatic consumer of cotton goods manufactured in this country.

On the import side the totals from all the grand divisions except Africa will be larger in the fiscal year 1912 than in the preceding year, while those from North America, South America and Asia will probably establish new high records. From Europe the year's imports will show an increase of about 20 million dollars when compared with last year, the indicated total for 1912 being approximately 790 million dollars, against 768 million in 1911 and the high record total of 806 million reached in 1910. Imports from North America seem likely to aggregate 320 million dollars, compared with 307 million in 1910 and 305 million in 1911, these being the only years in which that trade has exceeded $300,000,000. From South America the imports will probably reach, for the first time in any fiscal year, a total of 200 million dollars, the nearest approach thereto having been 196 million in 1910, and 183 million in 1911. The imports from Asia in 10 months of the current year were at the rate of 225 million dollars per annum, which sum, if actually reached, will be about 12 million dollars more than the former high records made in 1911 and 1907. From Oceania the year's imports are estimated at 35 million dollars, being two million dollars less than those of the high record year, 1910, but exceeding by five million those of last year. Shipments from Hawaii, now a customs district of the United States, are not included in these figures. The imports from Africa will show a total of about 24 million dollars for the year, a sum larger than in any earlier year except 1911, when it exceeded 27 million dollars.

ELECTRIC POWER HOUSE CERTAIN FOR WACO

TEXAS POWER AND LIGHTING COMPANY ALLIED WITH INTERURBAN.

A. D. Brinkerhoff Heads Street Railway Company, W. S. Rathell Gas Company.

Big news broke for Waco Monday, the Texas Power and Light company having filed its charter with the secretary of state at Austin. This company will build the power house in Waco that will supply current for the Waco-Dallas interurban line. It is incorporated for $9,000,000, but may later be increased to $13,000,000. Although a number of incorporators are named, the company is really a subsidiary of the Southern Traction company, which will operate the interurban.

The Southern Traction company, which owns the Waco street railway, will take over that property June 1, and in that connection A. D. Brinkerhoff, who has been connected with the company for some time, becomes superintendent, succeeding W. S. Rathell, who becomes superintendent of the Waco Gas and Electric company, an allied organization, which will establish offices at 703 Austin avenue.

Mr. Brinkerhoff has many friends in Waco who are glad to hear of his promotion, it having been earned by hard work and strict attention to business. Mr. Rathell's promotion is also due to his application to business and his efforts to build the street car system up to its present standard.

SOUTH READY TO FLOP.

Roosevelt's Ohio Victory Takes Confidence Out of Taft Campaign.

Special to The Morning News.

Washington, May 27.—With the realization today of the extent of the Roosevelt victory in Ohio, hope for the renomination of President Taft has been abandoned in every quarter except that immediately concerned in the fortunes of this administration.

A few loyal Taft supporters in this city and elsewhere refuse to give up the ship. They will concede defeat at Chicago until the last ballot is cast. The president himself, though discouraged and humiliated at the adverse vote in his own state, means to fight to the last ditch.

Regardless of Mr. Taft's determination to press forward to whatever party hazard, until the convention has settled the issue, confidence in his campaign no longer remains. The delegates now counted for him in many of the southern states, who have for weeks been on the anxious bench, are ready to desert. Half of the New York delegation is wavering and members of the Republican national committee who have been regarded as Taft supporters are said today to be ready to vote with Roosevelt.

Stampede to "T. R." Threatened.

The Ohio result alone has not accomplished this. The consecutive defeats of President Taft in those states where primary votes have been cast is largely responsible for the stampede to Roosevelt now threatened. Maine, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Maryland, California, Nebraska, Oregon and the rest of them have made it plain by their Roosevelt majorities that the president in no longer supported by the rank and file of his party.

These primary results have made it impossible for the president's managers to hold many of the delegates elected and instructed by conventions. Perhaps a dozen of such conventions were held and cut-and-dried programs laid before them by Taft officeholders. This was done in many instances at a time when the Roosevelt candidacy was in doubt. All of it was done before the Roosevelt people had instilled in the minds of the convention-elected delegates the deadly argument that if nominated the president could not win.

Struggle to Be Before Committee.

Since then Roosevelt has demonstrated his popularity. He has carried state after state in spite of the effective Taft organizations. He has inspired confidence in his ability to save the party from inevitable defeat in November. All this has served to divide the support pledged to the president.

Whatever may be the result of New Jersey and South Dakota primaries, it is more than ever evident that the greatest struggle will take place before the Republican national committee at Chicago. The Taft politicians are determined to decide the vote of every delegate elected and pledged to the president by either a convention or by a primary. Colonel Roosevelt himself has served notice that he will resist any such program to the very end.

SAYS EX-WIFE MARRIED

Special to The Morning News.

Boston, May 27.—That his former wife, then Mrs. Blanche Cole, has married three times since they were divorced, five years ago, is one of the allegations in the answer filed yesterday in the circuit court by Clarence E. Gale to her petition to make him pay accumulated alimony amounting to $400.

The answer was filed through Harry B. Wolf, attorney. It states that by the decree of divorce, Mr. Gale was ordered to pay $10 a month for the support of his two daughters, but it denies that he owes his former wife $400. Besides the allegations as to his wife's remarriages, Mr. Gale asserts that his daughters are now 18 and 19 years old and are self-supporting. The case will come up for hearing before Judge Bond in the near future.

REFUSED TO PAY A $1 FINE.

Special to The Morning News.

Baltimore, May 27.—Sam Siegel, tailor at 203 East 13th street, has about heard the last of that sofa pillow he took from the home of Mabel McIntyre, 1400 Cherry street. Justice C. J. Welch had fined Siegel $1 for the pillow snatching, but Sam refused to pay and so the justice yesterday committed him to jail to serve out the amount of the fine and costs.

Judge Ralph Bantshaw, however, has a tender heart and a few hours after Sam arrived at the jail the judge paroled him. He interjected a few remarks about how a man should go a-courting, but the tailor did not seem to be interested.

EGYPTIAN DEODORIZER AND AEROFUME.

While an obnoxious odor is not necessarily harmful, it may cause no end of annoyance and discomfort. Most of the so-called deodorizers are more offensive than the odors they are intended to dispel. The purpose of the Egyptian Deodorizer and Aerofume is to provide a convenient and practical device, instantly available, thoroughly efficient and pleasing to popular taste.

All odors arising from cooking and odors that arise around the home are soon dispelled by their use. They drive away flies and mosquitoes. They are especially nice to use before an "at home," as they act both as a deodorizer and a perfume, leaving an Oriental perfume to the rooms that is so much desired. Try them once and you will not be without them.

MUST HAVE BEEN SAN ANTONIO'S TIME TO WIN

WACO IS DEFEATED BY 6 TO 1
SCORE—VISITORS' BUNCHED HITS TELL THE STORY.

Ayres, Austin Cast-Off, Effective for Visitors—Lohman Sent in to Relieve Jost.

Beaten, almost goose-egged, by San Antonio.

Beaten, with Ayres, an Austin
cast-off in the box for the visitors.
Beaten by a 6 to 1 score, but maybe it was San Antonio's time to win, the Bronchos having dropped the seven preceding games.

Houston tied with Fort Worth yesterday and there's some satisfaction in the fact that Waco is about as near the top of the league as before the game.

It was hits that won for San Antonio, Monday afternoon at Katy Park, nice long ones, beginning with a triple and tapering off to a single whenever occasion demanded. Jost, who started in the box for Waco, lasted just two innings, or rather was allowed to stay on the firing line that long. Lohman relieved him and also met trouble, an error and a hit being responsible.

Locals Score in Second.
Renard scored for Waco in the second and was due again in the seventh, but didn't. Wohlleben and Duguey fanning and Stewart going out on a grounder. Aside from those two innings, and the third and eighth, in which four men got to the bat, only three faced Ayres in the various seasons. The seventh was the only time Waco had a good look in at affairs, and looks don't count for much.

Waco's six hits, compared to San Antonio's seven, failed to make good. The strike out record was almost the same, Ayres retiring eight, and Lohman six and Jost
one. Jost and Ayres each allowed a base on balls.

Triple Starts Things.
As said before, it must have been San Antonio's time to win, Waco and even the fates being unwilling for Midkiff, second up in the first after Seitz and popped up, was pressed, stole second and came in for Seitz's triple. In the second, Lohman reached first on Wohlleben's error and was advanced by Smith's hit to center. Both moved up on Lohman's sacrifice fly and both came in on Ayres' single, which he stretched to a double. Ayres was advanced by Seitz's out and scored on Midkiff's hit.

San Antonio's two scores in the fifth were made in the same manner as the first two in the second, the only difference being in a few of the names. Seitz, first up, reached first on a hit, and went to second on Midkiff's drive to Tanner, which Tanner dropped attempting to touch. Seitz at second, Midkiff reaching first. Both then sacrificed and Seitz and Midkiff scored on Metts's single to center, which was stretched into a double. In the third, fourth, sixth, seventh and eighth innings, only three men faced Lohman, in the ninth, four, the record being about the same as Waco's.

Duguey Jumped into the line again yesterday, duplicating a Sunday feat, when in the fourth inning,
with one San Antonio player out,
he touched Lohman, enroute to second and threw Ayres out at first.
Ayres having knuckled him a hot ground.

Waco's only score was made by Renard in the second. Getting a single to center, he was advanced to second and third by Reilly's and Vohlleben's grounders, both bely retired, and scored on Stewart's single. Duguey grounded out.
Torrey, a former Dallas pitcher,
who is trying out for a Texas League umpire, was behind the bat yesterday. Umpire Van Sickle taking the field. Torrey called several bad ones but the worst objection is the dictatorial tactics he permitted San Antonio to run over him. From the standpoint of the veteran amateur, there's but little satisfaction at a ball game in watching the players practice. Ayres, pitching for San Antonio, was the worst, he starting the ball on a relay tour around the diamond on the slightest provocation. He's a graceful boy and all that but it isn't playing ball. The score:

NASHVILLE FRANCHISE IS SOLD TO MCGUGIN

CAVANAUGH TAKES IT FROM OLD MANAGEMENT; NEW COM-PANY IS TO BE FORMED.

By The Associated Press.

Nashville, Tenn., May 27.—President W. M. Cavanaugh of the Southern League, took the Nashville baseball franchise out of the hands of the local company today and turned it over to Dan E. Mc-Gugin, who is widely known on account of his athletic connections with Vanderbilt University. The transfer of the franchise came as a severe blow to the present owners, who had hoped in some way to continue to operate the club.

The transfer of the franchise means that the old management is entirely out of it and that McGugin will have entire control until he organizes a new company which he intends to do within the next few days if possible

COTTON MARKET MORE ACTIVE AND LOWER

SHARP BREAK FOLLOWS PUBLICATION OF NATIONAL GINNERS' CROP REPORT.

By The Associated Press.

New York, May 27.—The cotton market was more active and decidedly lower today on favorable crop accounts and liquidation by recent buyers, closing steady at a net decline from 5 to 23 points.

The opening was easy at a decline of 9 to 10 points, owing to favorable weather over Sunday and a favorable view of the official forecasts. Trading was comparatively quiet at the start, being restricted probably by the absence of Liverpool cables, owing to holiday and by uncertainty as to the showing of private accounts.

Covering and support from trade sources checked the decline around the opening figures and prices rallied to within 4 or 5 points of Saturday's closing level during the forenoon, but following the publication of the National Ginner's association report there was a sharp break under renewed liquidation and bear pressure.

According to private wires, the National Ginner's association made the condition of the crop 79.4 per cent, or only 2 per cent under the average of the official June figures for the past ten years and while the report indicated a reduction of 7 per cent in acreage it apparently was a more favorable crop indication than had been expected.

At any rate selling became quite general during the afternoon and the market closed within a point or two of the lowest. The condition figures of 79.4 by the ginner's compare with 87.8, the government's report at the beginning of last season.

Receipts 687 bales against 10,265 last week and 3439 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston 1344, against 1619 last year. At New Orleans 1410 against 894 last year and at Houston 1155 against 174 last year.

The capacity to enjoy life is one great thing, to be able no matter what happens to wear a serene face. If things are not as we would wish, enjoy what we can, and hope for better times. There are no more unattractive persons living than those who never enjoy life, who look upon it as a vale of tears, who, if they do take pleasure in anything, do so under protest. The most unpromising conditions of life may be made to yield us some good if we look for it, and the looking for it will do us good even if we do not find it; the dwelling on the disadvantages not only sours, but shuts off all hope of our seeing any possible good if it should be there. So, if we would make ourselves attractive in the best sense of the world, cultivate a capacity of pleasure in the little things, the bird songs that waken us in the morning and we will never lack material to interest us, for our lives are made up of little pleasures, little troubles and small things generally.

During the fiscal year ended June 30 last, 599 individuals were indicted by federal grand juries on charges of using the mails to defraud. Of 196 brought to trial 184 were convicted. The chief inspector of the postoffice department, from whose report these figures are taken, intimates something like $77,000,000 was coaxed from the pockets of gullible citizens by the frauds of the sort that fall within the province of the postal authorities because the swindlers make use of the mails. Were it not for the vigilance of the postoffice inspectors and their energy in running down the swindlers who use the mails in this business, we dare say the takings of these sharp-witted gentry yearly would equal the annual appropriations of a billion-dollar congress. Swindles as ancient as the "Spanish prisoner" scheme and the "green goods game"—exposed times without number—still foster their victims by scores.

The ad men are wiring their congratulations to Waco's papers because they feel that Waco entertained them royally and uniquely. Waco put on the demonstration of the whole tour and the advertising brains of America will not soon forget it. Chairman Joe Sanger and President Crawford of the Ad club and their able assistants worked night and day on the proposition for many weeks and deserve the heartfelt thanks of Wacoans. Not that they did it all. As Mr. Crawford aptly said, "Everybody's doing it now—co-operating in the reception of the visitors in Waco." It's the Waco spirit.

The nine-million dollar power plant for Waco, to develop the richest section in the black land belt of Texas, means increased prosperity for Waco. The fact that Waco will supply electricity for outlying towns and make this a power furnishing center means Waco will be to Texas what Denver is to Colorado. It is indeed a great victory for Waco and this section and is in line with the new era of prosperity for the city of actualities.

The busy men and women of the world are they who have attained to greatness. Many such have endured hardships and practiced rigid economy to enable them to meet the demands of a large family, and the greatest men this country has produced have been men who have labored with hands and brain after acquiring a competency, remembering the years that are gone, admit that their working years were their happiest years.

Cultivate a little more sentiment, indulge now and then in a little romance, open the windows of your soul to the south and let the south breezes blow through and perfume up your rusty old heart a bit. It will not harm you, and it will make you an infinitely more pleasant companion than you are now.

The number of crimes is on the increase, and they can be traced back to homes in which parents were too neglectful of the children in the direction of character development.

Love in Springtime

Drawn Especially for The Morning News by Nell Brinkley

"IN THE SPRING A YOUNG MAN'S FANCY LIGHTLY TURNS TO THOUGHTS OF LOVE."

FOUR WOMEN TO SIT IN NATIONAL CONVENTION

Republicans in California and Other Western States Elect Them As Delegates.

Special to The Morning News

Chicago, May 27.—Four women will occupy seats as delegates at the Republican national convention June 18. Two will come from California and two from other western states.

"The first woman delegate to sit in a national Republican convention was at Minneapolis, in 1892, when Wyoming sent one," said Chairman Harry S. New of the sub-committee on arrangements.

"Four years ago there was a woman alternate from a western state. This year there will be four women delegates, according to reports, although no credentials have yet been received from them."

Sergeant-at-Arms William F. Stone has received many applications from women in western states for appointment as assistant sergeant-at-arms, doorkeepers and ushers at the convention. None but men will be named for these positions this year.

UNCLE SAM TOO POOR TO BUY CATS' FOOD

Washington, May 27.—The propriety and legality of boarding two cats at the expense of the United States government was a question submitted today to A. Platt Andrew, assistant secretary of the treasury. Urgent appeal for the cats came from the sub-treasury in New York.

The treasury building there, it was averred, has been infested with rats and mice. It was absolutely necessary to obtain two cats for the protection of the papers in the archives. Clerks have been contributing to their support. This precaution and charitable method is said to be "unsatisfactory," and the treasury department was asked for permission to pay for cat food out of the contingent fund.

Doctor Andrew decided that the administration's effort to make a record for economy and the desire to reduce appropriations made it necessary that the cats should continue to be objects of charity.

THANKFULNESS.

By Stephen Shannon, Staff Poet Morning News.

O, how I thank Thee, precious Lord,
For every dawning's day;
For faithful friends to cherish me
Along life's thorny way;
For pain, and strife, and poverty,
Companions all to me;
They serve, dear Lord, as guiding posts
To point me, Love, to Thee.

I thank Thee, Lord, that I must live
Submerged in sin and woe,
The mastery of which affords
The soul a chance to grow.
I thank Thee for the glowing sun
Whose warm congenial rays
Will kiss to life the sleeping flowers
With coming vernal days.

I thank Thee for a soul that loves
Its neighbor every day,
And may I bless his sore distress
Should he fall by the way.
I thank Thee for the precious blood
That flowed on Calvary.
The blood that saves and keeps one saved
Throughout eternity.

ORGANIZE COMMERCIAL CLUB.

Mobeetie, Tex., May 27.—On Monday, May 13th, this city sounded the keynote of success and as a result the Mobeetie Commercial club was organized. The initial meeting was attended by many citizens of this city, who pledged their support to the new organization. The following officers were elected: Geo. B. Dunn, president; D. B. Johnson, secretary.

ASKING TOO MUCH.

"My dear," said Mr. Clarkson, "I don't want you to think I have any desire to criticize you for the way you manage, but, really, we must try to live within our income."

"Within our income? Goodness! And be regarded by everybody in our set as eccentric?"—Judge's Library.

THE ONLY WAY.

"I think, dear, I'll make my will." "Why should you do that? You haven't anything to leave." "I know, but it seems to be the only way in which I can hope to have a will of my own."—Chicago Record-Herald.
